

YOUNG WOMENS 101

Introduction to the YW Program

Course Description Winter Semester - 2018

Young Womens 101 is an introductory course designed with new beebees and parents in mind. It is also a great refresher course for those who may have attended in the past. The course prepares you for the daily, weekly, monthly and annual requirements for YW and their parents. We will focus on the basics of the YW program with an emphasis on Personal Progress. Please also be prepared for calendar items and a FAQ session.

Prerequisites:

Students must only have a desire to learn, be loved, make new friends, and have lots of fun!

Learning Objectives:

Faculty & Peers:

Introduction of current faculty and peers as well as incoming students.

YW Essentials:

Become familiar with the Motto, Theme, Symbolism, & Values.

Personal Progress:

Understand the basics, How To's, Tracking, & Awards.

Calendar:

Familiarize yourself with upcoming weekly, monthly, & annual activities.

Proofreading & FAQ:

Review documentation and ask any remaining questions.

Closing Remarks:

Dean of Students

Following class, light refreshments will be served.
Find your lunch bag with your name on it.

Instructors:

YW President:
1st Counselor:
2nd Counselor:
Secretary:
Laurel Adviser:
Mia Maid Adviser:
Beehive Adviser:
Camp Director:

Textbooks:

Book of Mormon & Bible
Personal Progress Book

Helpful Websites:

www.lds.org
www.lds.org/young-women/personal-progress

Attendance Policy:

Come as much as you can!
The more we see you the happier we are!

Grading Policy:

We grade on a generous curve, give lots & lots of extra credit & everyone gets straight A's!